

There are few ways how to reach Hydra Island

By Sea

Flying Dolphins and Catamarans from Piraeus port have daily trips to Hydra, a journey of around 1 hour and 30 minutes.

HELLENIC SEAWAYS ? 210 4199000 HELLENIC SEAWAYS ? 210 4199000, HYDREONIKI TRAVEL T. 22980 54007 HYDREONIKI TRAVEL T. 22980 54007

By Car

You can drive to Metoxi (mainland Peloponnese), leave your car at the parking bay and cross to Hydra via Sea Taxi within 12 minutes.

www.hydralines.gr M. 6947 325263

Private Boat

If you have your own yacht or sailing boat, you can dock either on the main port of Hydra or at any of the small ports and gulfs of the island such as Mandraki, Kaminia, Molos, Palamidas, Mpisti, Agios Nikolaos or even at nearby Dokos island.

Port Authority T. 22980 52279

Moving around the island

The best way to move around the island is to walk. If You want, there is a possibility to rent a donkey and there are many of them near the port. One ride cost about 10euro (per donkey) for 10 minutes.

The other way to see Hydra Island is to take a water taxi. They are a bit expensive but they will take you to the beaches around the island. They have fix prices depending on the destination and the number of people inside, if you want to take a private one you'll pay more so relax and wait for some more passengers.

Some prices:

From Hydra to Kamini is about 10 euros

From Hydra to Vlihos or Mandraki is about 14 euros

From Hydra to Plakes Vlihou in about 16 euros

Hydra circle tour 150 in about euros