

Under the name Saronic's Islands a big group of islands near Piraeus and under Piraeus prefecture can be found. The name comes from the Gulf, Saronic Gulf, that washes Piraeus' banks.

All the tourist guides give space to these islands because there are really easy to visit and we can beat that you are not going to regret the trip. From Piraeus you can daily catch the Ferry or the Flying Dolphin to these islands. But, why will you make only a short trip?

Another alternative is spending there some days: for some is the best alternative, better than looking for a hotel in Athens or Piraeus. All the Saronic's Islands are genuine Greek islands full of the charm of the simple and old life. In all of them the history lovers, the nature fanatic, the sun and beach obsessed will find something adequate for them.

Don't be afraid to go out of season! The weather maybe is unpredictable but these islands are so close Piraeus that it is almost a crime going to your country without visiting at least one. However Why only one? Let's try all!
